 Commissions are based on 5 zip code package, estimated 8-20 leads/month, $492k average new home price (DFW market), and 3% builder commission.

Please Note: Total amount of new home closings and 3% builder commissions are not guaranteed and depends on many factors such as homebuyer's intent on purchasing a new home with you as their buyer agent, average home price in a city, loan amount pre-approved, your ability to follow-up with the homebuyer, and your experience of selling a new construction home. It is important you get everything in writing from each builder. At Buildentory, our goal is to maintain the most up-to-date builder inventory and give you early insights on your homebuyer's search behavior. Through our innovative advertising & marketing - we can further do zip code analytics and redirect high homebuyer search traffic giving you the best chance of making a closing.
